FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

In line with lower US Treasury yield movement, IDR government bonds showed persistent positive return in March 2019 and the IDR Prime Fixed Income Fund recorded performance of +1.55% on monthly basis. Support from foreign inflow to IDR government bonds and lower than expected inflation data contributed to higher bond price movement. Investor's outlook for next month is still optimistic, given dovish atmosphere worldwide. Bank Indonesia also maintained its benchmark interest rate at 6%. Most of regional central bank, including Bank Indonesia are expected to create loosening monetary policy at the moment given low inflation rate and GDP growth slowdown.
