FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

The portfolio managers has been taking a cautious stance overall since the previous month. It had trimmed the European equity exposure and as the top-down picture for Europe remains weak. In the other hand, it added to Asian equities via the more defensive equity strategy as the portfolio managers remain constructive on Asia due to the positive longer-term growth potential and more stable political picture versus other regions. It also trimmed the Asian investment grade bond exposure, while the allocation to global hybrid bonds was added to. A new alternatives holding, US Solar Fund, was purchased. This renewable energy holding offers an attractive yield (target yield of around 5% p.a.), and exposure to US based assets.
