FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

On a year-to-date basis equity markets are still strong despite the rise in volatility, and there remains persistent demand for safe-haven assets like gold and US Treasuries. Against this uncertain market backdrop, the managers retained a cautious stance over the month. They took some profits from emerging market debt (hard currency) as the asset class has performed strongly this year. Instead, they added to the allocation in China government bonds and highquality US investment grade bonds. The allocation to US financials was trimmed, as moving into a more dovish central bank cycle has weakened the thesis. However, the allocation to the global financials strategy was retained.
