FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Inflation in March 2020 recorded at 2.96% YoY (+0.10% MoM), compared with previous month of 2.98% YoY (+0.28% MoM). Food, beverage and tobacco prices were the main driver while transport costs continued to decline. Citing the need to maintain external stability, Bank Indonesia (BI) kept its policy rate unchanged at 4.50%. However, BI announced a host of liquidity enhancement measures, including a cut in the IDR reserve ratio for commercial banks by 200bps. Sharia banks have also lowered their mudharabah return in the range of 5.50%-7.50% per annum and IDR Cash Syariah Fund booked return of +0.31% in April 2020.
