FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia reported inflation of 0.28% MoM (+1.59% YoY) in November, compared with the previous month of 0.07% MoM (+1.44% YoY). Food inflation picked up while core inflation slowed for the eight-straight month, suggesting domestic demand remained weak. Thus, reason for Bank Indonesia (BI) to keep its policy rate at 3.75%. BI views that the economy is gradually recovering and expect inflation to be below target in 2020 before returning to 2-4% range in 2021. Meanwhile, ample liquidity triggered banks to lower their time deposit rates to the range of 3.00% - 4.50% per annum from November's range of 3.50% - 5.00% and the IDR Cash Syariah Fund booked return of +0.06% in December 2020.
