In February 2020, IDR Balanced Syariah Fund booked performance of -6.09% mom, inline with the benchmark. Global and domestic equity markets corrected further in the month of February 2020 (JII total return -12.1% mom), driven by continued fear of global corona virus outbreak given rapidly increasing number of cases outside China. From bond market, IBPA Indonesia Government Sukuk Index went down -0.58% on monthly basis despite Bank Indonesia cut policy rate by 25bps to 4.75%. At the same time, Rupiah depreciated by -4.9% on monthly basis against USD as foreign withdrew investment from local bond market during the fourth week of February. On the economic side, inflation increased from +2.72% YoY in December to +2.88% YoY in January 2020 due to higher food prices.
