FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Inflation in May 2020 recorded at 2.19% YoY (+0.07% MoM), lower than previous month of 2.67% YoY (+0.08% MoM). The slowdown was led by further easing in food inflation, while core inflation also edged down. As expected, Bank Indonesia (BI) cut its policy rate by 25bps to 4.25% amid weak economic outlook and recovery in Rupiah exchange rate throughout June 2020. Following the rate cut, sharia principle banks lowered their mudharabah return in the range of 5.00% - 6.75% per annum from May's range of 5.60% - 7.00% and IDR Cash Syariah Fund booked return of +0.28% in June 2020. Going forward, the challenging growth environment warrants further policy support, but external uncertainties could limit BI's scope for further easing.
