FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia local government bond market made a setback in March 2020 with Bloomberg Indonesia Local Sovereign Index (BINDO) declined by -5.2% on monthly basis, while the IDR Fixed Income Fund performance reported -4.91% return in the same month. Due to concern on slowing economic growth as cases of Coronavirus outbreak spread beyond China increased rapidly, foreign investors reduced risky assets including Indonesia local bonds. As a result, Rupiah depreciated by 13.9% on monthly basis against USD in March 2020. To calm the market and halt slowing economy growth, most government around the world promises fiscal stimulus such as US that just approved USD 2 trillion stimulus. Meanwhile, Indonesia Government plans to issue recovery bond onward. Monetary side, almost all major central banks around the world slashed their interest benchmark rates and loosen its monetary policy. including Bank Indonesia cutting the 7-day reverse repo rate by 25 bps to 4.5% in March 2020.
