FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia recorded deflation in August 2020 at -0.05% MoM (+1.32% YoY), vs. previous month of -0.10% MoM (+1.54% YoY). Food and transportation continued to be the drivers for the deflation which signified weak domestic demand amid Covid19 outbreak. Bank Indonesia (BI) maintained its policy rate at 4.00%, citing the need for IDR stability. The IDR has been the region's weakest performer on monthly basis by depreciating -2.2% amid renewed concerns about growth, prolonged debt monetization as well as proposed amendments to the 1999 Bank Indonesia governing law that could jeopardize the central bank's independence. Meanwhile, banks lowered their mudharabah return by 0.25% to the range of 4.25% - 5.25% per annum and the IDR Dana Berkah Fund booked return of +0.20% in September 2020.
