FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia reported April inflation of 0.13% MoM (+1.42% YoY), compared to the previous month of 0.08% MoM (+1.37% YoY). The pickup in inflation was fairly even across major broad categories, with volatile food and energy prices remained the major contributor. Bank Indonesia (BI) kept its policy rate on hold at 3.50% as expected. The policy messaging was broadly unchanged, with BI reiterating its desire to stabilize the Rupiah currency as well as call for banks to lower their lending rates further. Meanwhile, sharia banks maintained their mudharabah return at the range of 2.85% - 3.50% in May and the IDR Cash Syariah Fund booked return of +0.16% in April 2021.
