FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia local government bond market reported a positive return in November 2021 with Bloomberg EM Local Currency: Indonesia Total Return Index Unhedged IDR went up +0.66% on monthly basis, and the IDR Prime Fixed Income Fund performance reported +0.30% return in the same month. Despite US Federal Reserve has started tapering its quantitative easing program and expectations are pointing to an acceleration of the normalization in 2022, leading to a Fed Fund rate hike possibly in June 2022, the local government bond market was stable. In addition, substantial foreign outflow was seen, but a combination of ample liquidity from onshore banks and stable IDR were able to absorb the volatility during the month. On monetary side, Bank Indonesia maintained the BI 7D-RRR at 3.5% in November 2021.
