FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia local government bond market underwent correction in October 2022 with Bloomberg EM Local Currency: Indonesia Total Return Index Unhedged IDR went down by -0.50% on monthly basis, while the IDR Fixed Income Fund performance reported -0.49% return in the same month. The movement was in line with US Fed hiking its key policy rates by 75bps in October 2022 to counter persistent high inflation. On domestic side, IDR depreciated by -2.4% to 15,598 against US dollar despite declining USD DXY Index by -0.5% to 111.5 in October. Bank Indonesia also raised its policy rate by 50 bps to 4.75% as a pre-emptive and forward-looking measure to lower inflation expectation and to stabilize depreciating Rupiah.
