FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Within Defensive assets, the investment grade credit exposure was rotated into government bonds, and managers dynamically managed their long-dated US Treasuries exposure. They also took profits and sold Asian investment grade bond position. Within Yield assets, they rotated proceeds from emerging market hard currency to local currency debt. A new position was purchased in South African local government bonds. Within Growth assets, they bought a new position in energy, with a focus on European companies, complementing the existing US energy exposure. They also added new positions in European and Japanese banks.
