FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

The investment landscape is currently challenging. Over the medium term, the risk reward for risk assets is asymmetric. If the labour market remains resilient, inflation is likely to remain sticky and the Fed will not have the headroom to cut rates. On the other hand, if a recession eventually hits the economy, risk assets would also not do well. Over the short term, current economic releases do not suggest that US is about to enter a recession imminently. The US labour market remains strong and wage growth is healthy. In addition, the ongoing Q2 2023 US corporate earnings reporting season have been encouraging. In such an environment, investors should not preclude the scenario of risk assets holding up over the short term. Given the confluence of forces pulling asset markets in different directions, for the Advanced portfolios, the focus is to construct a well-diversified portfolio that is relatively resilient to weakness in risk assets. We continue to watch the markets carefully and will emphasize bi-directional risk management for the Advanced portfolios.
