FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

In January 2024, IDR Balanced Syariah Fund booked performance of -0.10%. In last month, global equity market posted a mixed performance with US market closed higher despite expectation of Fed to keep interest higher for longer, driven by good labor data, and China market corrected due to concern on recovery. Domestic market also posted a mixed performance amid 2.5% MoM weakening in IDR and IDR8.3trn net foreign inflow. IBPA Indonesia Government Sukuk Index Total Return had a mixed movement and recorded positively 0.86% on monthly basis, while 12-year benchmark sukuk yield went up by 4 bps to 6.73%. Negative sentiment came from lingering global uncertainty and volatility amid IDR weakening of 2.49% monthly against the USD. Meanwhile, Bank Indonesia (BI) has chosen to maintain the BI Rate at 6.00%, deeming the current level sufficient for controlling inflation and supporting the Rupiah. Additionally, BI views Indonesia's economy as resilient, increasing its expected GDP growth from 4.5 – 5.3% in 2023 to 4.7 – 5.5% in 2024 as domestic consumption is expected to grow.
