FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

In Sept 2026, IDR Equity Syariah Fund booked -6.53%MoM (net), above the benchmark performance. JCI and JAKISL saw a steep correction -7%MoM and -8.1%MoM respectively in September. Markets sold off mainly on global macro pressure: US 10-year real yields sat at multi-decade highs, Fed cuts look unlikely before 2028, and oil stayed elevated with the Strait of Hormuz constrained for a seventh month, pushing central banks across Asia toward tightening. Indonesia was hit hardest and most of the losses coming in the final week as the rupiah weakened to around 17,875 per dollar. Domestic fundamentals held up better than prices suggest, with growth forecasts nudged up to 5.1% on firmer domestic demand and retail sales stabilizing under targeted stimulus. The market's attention, however, was on November's MSCI decision on whether Indonesia stays an emerging market. Shareholder transparency has improved measurably, but evidence that coordinated trading has declined remains mixed, so the debate has shifted from reform announcements to proof of consistent enforcement, with October's shareholding-concentration review as the next test. Foreign investors recorded net outflow of Rp10.2tn, in Sept-26, reversing a net inflow of Rp1.6tn in Jul-26 and Rp1.2tn in Aug-26. Within JAKISL, all sectors delivered negative returns. The largest negative contributors came from Materials, Communications and Consumer Staples. We expect equity markets to remain volatile in the near term amid renewed geopolitical tensions and changes to US monetary policies. However, we maintain our view that Indonesia's long-term equity outlook remains supported by the potential for sustainable and structural economic improvements, including rising GDP per capita. At current levels, we believe the market offers an attractive entry point with favourable risk-reward for long-term investors.
