Global equity market rose moderately in January 2025 starting on a positive note. For the month ending January 2025, Communication Services, Health Care, and Financials led while Information Technology, Consumer Staples and Utilities lagged. The fixed income markets rose in January 2025. US Treasuries, Investment Grade and High Yield indices were all up in January 2025. After a significant spike in December 2024, US 10-year yield dipped in January 2025. High yield credit spreads compressed in January 2025 while the move in investment grade credit spreads was much more muted. The outlook for equities over the medium term remains constructive. On the fundamentals front, the US economy remains resilient with steady job growth, rising wages and positive consumer sentiment. Analysts are also projecting double-digit earnings growth for US companies in 2025. The investment strategy for Elite Funds is to navigate 2025 with a diversified portfolio, relying on different sectors and regions that have different return drivers, rather than a small number of stocks.
