FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

In March 2021, IDR Balanced Syariah Fund booked performance of -3.41%. In last month, global market performed in mixed direction with the backdrop of strong US economic recovery expectation and, consequently, rising US Treasury yield that led to generally positive performance for developed market, against policy normalization in China and weakened emerging market currency that led to generally negative performance for emerging market, including Indonesia. In bond market, Bloomberg Indonesia Local Sovereign Index went down by -0.19% on monthly basis as selling pressure on increasing US Treasury yields has eased after US Fed's supportive statement during FOMC meeting. On the other hand, despite Indonesia released February's USD 2 billion trade surplus data, IDR has depreciated by 2.0% on monthly basis to IDR14,535 against USD in March 2021. On the monetary side, Bank Indonesia maintained the 7-day reverse repo rate at 3.5% in March 2021.
