FUND MANAGER COMMENTARY

Indonesia reported inflation of 0.10% MoM (+1.38% YoY) in February 2021, compared to the previous month of 0.26% MoM (+1.55% YoY). Inflation eased further to the lowest level in six-month, due to the slowdown in volatile food price. With the pandemic still weighing on economic activity, inflation pressure is likely to remain weak, thereby warranting continued monetary policy accommodation. However, Bank Indonesia (BI) maintained its policy rate at 3.50% as BI concerns about IDR stability and capital outflows. In line with BI move, sharia principle banks maintained the mudharabah returns at the range of 3.00% - 4.00% per annum and the IDR Cash Syariah Fund booked return of +0.11% in March 2021.
